Welcome to the September 2019 Wayout TV Newsletter

We hope you enjoy reading about all of the exciting things that have happened this month. If you would like to contribute to next month's newsletter, get in touch with tom@wayout.tv

JOBS BOARD

Wayout TV is delighted to announce our new live 'Jobs Board' at ten-to-the hour every hour. Now residents can see up to date local job vacancies, live in their rooms. They'll be able to view the description of the job, salary range and contact details. Jobs Board: making that connection between education and employment.

KOESTLER

We have recently been to Snape Maltings in Suffolk to make a short film on Koestler's new exhibition: 'A Feeling We All Share'. The exhibition's artistic direction is led by the music group at HMP Warren Hill. This short film will air from week beginning 30th September.

LIVE SUBTITLES

Responding to requests by residents, who love to watch us in the evening but do not want to disturb their room-mate, we are delighted to announce that from next week Wayout TV will be subtitled in the evening.

This not only helps with disturbance but also assists those with hearing impairments and those who want to improve their grasp of English literacy.

“Wayout TV is a welcome service. Its balanced and informative approach is its best practice.”
Letter from HMP Lincoln resident

COMPETITION

We're looking for Education establishments to join our Poetry Vs Rap literacy Christmas competition. We'll be asking residents to submit either a Poem or Rap about their hopes for the New Year and we'll come and interview and record the winning entries. It's a great way to engage prisoners with writing and develop self-confidence with expression and communication.

Drop us a line at rap@wayout.tv if you want to get involved.

DIRECT TO RESIDENTS?

Just email or call with the information you would like to see displayed on your prison in-cell TVs, and we'll ensure its broadcast.

Whatever you want to advertise; a course, event or notice? Email tom@wayout.tv for all on-screen requests.
