Our new reactive schedule

It's been an interesting time for us here at Wayout TV towers over the last 8 weeks. I'm sure like yourselves we've had to adapt to some very challenging circumstances and react quickly to the changing needs for all our prisons. So, I'd like to take this opportunity to remind you of the schedule changes we've made which has resulted in some great feedback from viewers, SMT and HMPPS to name but a few. Do keep those suggestions coming. It's your TV channel for your residents

Faith Services

First of all a big thank you to Bob Wilson and Phil Chadder at HMPPS Chaplaincy for their help and support in ensuring live faith services continue via Wayout TV. We broadcast Christian Sunday Services at 9am & 9pm – Muslim Prayers: Friday's from 12 noon – Sikh TV: Saturday evenings at 6m and a multi faith broadcast at 10am Saturdays. Our mail bag confirms these are greatly appreciated by our viewers.

In-cell learning & exercise

At ten-to the hour every hour we have in-cell cardio-vascular exercise classes, yoga at 12 and 6 o'clock and mindfulness sessions for meditation at 10 and 4 O'clock.

We have authored three in-cell courses (Painting & Decorating, Electrics and Starting Your Own Business) which we are giving freely to our prisons to self-administer should they wish to take up this offer.

And at 3.30 and 9.30 we have in-cell quizzes – plus a whole new host of new content which is not only entertaining but really does extend broad-based learning.

“ Love the Knowledge programmes. They are a welcome relief from daytime TV. ”
Letter from HMP Bullingdon resident

Extra TV channels for prisoners

We understand establishments are now in the process of adding new Freeview channels. Whilst we aim not to compete with the likes of Love Island we'd like to remind you of the reason why you chose us to be your in-cell companion: great educational TV programmes, quality IAG, essential notices and above all, contributing to a rehabilitative culture in your establishment.

Direct to Residents?

Just email or call with the information you would like to see displayed on your prison in-cell TVs, and we will ensure they're broadcast.

Whatever you want to advertise on Your Local at 25-to the hour, email notices@wayout.tv for all on-screen requests.
